The Tale and Princeton Managers Have Received Format Propositions from the New York Baseball Club, Representing Manhattan Field, and Br. White, in Behalf of Berkeley Oval-Games and Gossip, should be settled to-day. Messrs, Cable and Munn are expected to consider two propositions this afternoon, one from the New York Baseball Club relative to Manhattan Field, and the other from Dr. White in behalf of Berkeley Oval. The New York Club sent a representative to C. C. Cuyler yesterday months of the proposition of the Santana of the Country of Astoria 1. Unless the Vale and Princeton undergraduate sition in writing, to the effect that Yale and Princeton could rent Manhattan Field on Dec. 1 $6,000, the same terms as last year. The Polo grounds were not mentioned, as, according for $6,000, the same terms as last year. The Polo grounds were not mentioned, as, according to a club official, Treasurer Talcott thinks that Manhattan Field is the only proper place to play the game. Later in the day one of the basehall men said:

"The New York Club does not wish to be dictatorial in this matter, but we think that our proposition is perfectly fair in view of the large receipts that the game will bring. Manhattan Field is in splendid condition, and Yale's objection to the turf is simply absurd."

Dr. White, of the Berkeley School, when seen by The Sun reporter, said that he had also sent a written proposition to the college managers tendering the use of Berkeley Oval. While he declined to state what were the terms, it was learned on good authority that he will insist upon a five years' contract, an annual rental of $5,000, or thereabouts, the erection of scats at the expense of the colleges, and the entire management of the game being taken out of his hands. In short, Dr. White doesn't care to have anything whatever to do with the game beyond renting the oval to the college managers. If Munn and Cable should decide upon this location they would have a tremendous amount of work on their hands. In order to baild sents for 20,000, which would be necessary, they would have to pay about $20,000, according to the estimate of Builder Hamilton, who constructed the stands at Manhattan Field. Dr. White, however, claims that the structures can be built for half that amount, and in this he is backed up by the college people. In addition to this the rental of $5,000 would cut quite a figure, and when the expense account of the University A. C. last year, which amounted to $5,000 outside of the ground rental, is considered, it will be seen that there would be very little profit in such a venture.

The Brooklyn Latin School, 18; FOLYBERINE INSTITUTE, 0. The Brooklyn Latin School eleven won a victory that they will not soon refrain from shouting over, at Eastern Park yesterlar afternown, when they succeeded in lowering the blue and gray of the Polytechnic Institute boys. The team that represented the "Poly" was the regular preparadory school eleven, and the game was one of the series for the champion-ship of the Long Island Interscholastic Athlette League. The Latin School put the ball in play. Ludkins kicked off, Mason caught the ball and was downed before he had a chance to run, The teams three up and walkover. Ludkins made Latin of seventy and and walkover. Ludkins made Latin of seventy and and walkover. Ludkins made Latin of seventy and the Latin School gained five yards. Then Ludkins was pushed over the line for a touch down. Ludkins tried for the goal, but missed it. The "Poly" boys began to weaken, and the Latin School had them at their mercy. Burt, Stevens went through "Poly" centre and gained five yards. Entr made a nice run which helped the Latin School team to score the second time. Ludkins kicked the goal. Time of first half, 20 minutes. The "Poly" boys played a strong game in the second half, but the Latin School team were too much for them. Mason, "Poly" till back, made a beautiful kick, and Grace caught the ball and sained about ten yards. Ludkins, Grace, and Stevens did most of the playing, and Grace succeeded in making a touch down. Ludkins fulled to kick the goal. The semistic hool of the latin school played a good game for the "Polys". The teams were:

MILEY UNDER THE LASH.

BERGEN RIDES THE COLT WELL AND GETS HIM HOME IN FRONT. Asaph-A Offi to Lady Violet-Roche Wins Cleverly from Song and Bance and

Sentper-Pouch Cott and Ed Kearney Win. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.- The largest crowd of the meeting saw six good races decided at the pretty course of the Virginia Jockey Club at St. Asaph this afternoon. The track had improved so much that the three-year-old colt Ed Kearney was enabled to put up 100 pounds and run the mile in the last race in 1:42%, which is only a quarter of a second slower than the record for the track held by Our Jack. Simms, who rode Ed Kearney, resorted to questionable tactics in

Lady Violet so greatly outclassed Gold Dollar and Bizarre in the first race that she was practically barred in the betting. Griffin let her sail along in front, and, although she tried to run out on the turn, she was so far away from her opponents that she could have gone to the extreme outer rail and then beaten her opponents fifty yards. Gold Dollar had Bizarre at his one mile and sixteenth. The talent supported him most liberally at 3 to 5. Judge Morrow led for nearly six furlongs and then gave way to Roche and Song and Dance. The favorite struck the head of the stretch nearly a length in advance of his rival, and in the run to the wire he increased the gap a trifle, winning a good race by nearly two lengths. Judge Morrow was a poor third. Carter showed a disposition to let. Dance, but le permitted Simms to buildoze him into pulling over and cutting off the avenue

The third race was a lively one. Oily Gamin was the favorite, on the strength of a reputed six-furlong trial in 1:164; but there was plenty of money to be placed on Miley, the newly named Lucille Bohn coit; Phobbus and Midstar. Oily tiamin was unfortunate in drawing the outside position, but he was well placed when the flag fell, Miley being absolutely last to get under way. Once into his stride, however, the son of Iroquois closed on Phobbus and Golden Gate, and when the upper turn was reached Bergen was next to the rail and ready to go through the moment there was an opening. Swinging for home Golden Gate and Phebbus parted company. Oily Gamin made a simultaneous rush for the front, and whips played an active part in the struggle to the wire, but Miley was game, and drawing away under the lash, won right gailantly from Oily Gamin by a length. Phobbus beat Golden Gate a head for third money, Jack Bennett won well over the victory of his coit.

The Scalper was the good thing in the fourth six-furlong trial in 1:165; but there was plenty gailantly from Oily Gamin by a length. Phobbus beat Golden Gate a head for third money. Jack Bennett won well over the victory of his coil.

The Scalper was the good thing in the fourth race, a dash at half a mile, for two-year-olds. He was never dangerous, however. Edna May. ridden by Willie Midgley, passed to the front at the drop of the flag, and finally won by a length and a half from Parthenia. Frank Clark's coit, by Wilful out of Whitzigi H., beat The Scalper handliv for third money.

Two good things were cut loose in the fifth event, which was also a dash of half a mile for two-year-olds. These were "Pittsburgh Phil's" Pouch colt and the great strapping filly Festival, by Britannic, out of Vacation, owned by the Messrs, Morris. Somebody forestalled "Pittsburgh Phil" in the betting, getting 8 to 5 for their money, but when he went to play he was offered 4 to 5 or nothing. He suiked and refused to place a dollar on the race. Doggett got a good send-off with the Pouch colt, and led for a quarter of a mile unchallenged. Festival, however, came up in the stretch brimful of running, and Doggett had to do his prettiest in order to get the money by a neck. Pretense was third. The Saluda filly was left at the post.

Ed Kearney was a great favorite for the concluding race of the day, but Leonardo carried the dollars of a smart delegation who knew that Tom Welch's gelding was in good trim. Kearney made the running, but he was hard pressed by Pulltzer and Leonardo during the first six furlongs. On the upper turn Leonardo left Pullizer and gave chase to the favorite. The latter, however, stepped into a hole about 100 feet from the head of the stretch, and it looked for a moment as though he would fall. Griffin pulled out to go to the outside when squared away for the run home, and Leonardo appeared to be full of running. Ed Kearney either swerved or was pulled out by Simms, and in doing so interfered with the gelding. Simms did not wait for Leonardo to get to his horse's quarters again, but began riding like a demon.

CHAMPIONS DRIVEN TO SULKY. Robert J. and Other Fast Harness Racers

Perform at Point Breeze. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2,-What may be called meeting for champions began at the Philadelphia Driving Park this afternoon, and continues for another day. The storm of Wednes-day, which made a postponement necessary, was ceeded by one of the most delightful November days ever seen here, and the largest crowd that has been at Point Breeze this season patronized the sport. As a curtain raiser there was a 2:00 trot, in which Azote took full revenge for the thrashing Phoebe Wilkes gave him at Louisville. Phube was backed at 50 to 35 before the start, but Azote captured the first heat so easily that it was 5 to 2 on him before the second heat. Phaebe Wilkes made a bold bid for the heat, but the gelding shook her off as easily as he had disposed of Nightingsie in the first mile. Each of the heats was trotted in 2:10%. In the third heat he left the mares far behind and recled off a mile in 2:10, a great performance under the conditions. Then the great pacers Robert J. and John R. Gentry appeared to settle the dispute that had resulted so unsatisfactorily at Nashville two weeks ago. The first heat showed that Gentry was not in form, as Robert J. played with him in 2:08. Betting was 25 to 12 at first on the gelding, and it dropped to it of as they scored up. In the second heat the stallion was worse off, so that Robert J. had matters his own way and jorged round in 2:12%. Finding that Gentry had no chance to who or make the champion extend himself, McHenry obtained permission to draw him and let Robert J. go a fost mile. This met with general approval, and stimulated by a runner drives by Ardy McDowell, Robert J. paced a mile in 2:01. His quarters were 0:313%, 0:31, and 0:31%. This is a new record for Point Breeze, the previous best mile being 2:08, made by McScot a few weeks ago.

Quite the closset thing of the day was the 2:19 trot, in which Gratz, who was overlooked in the betting at first, trotted the best race of his life. He had to step in 2:17% to begin with in order to out-foot the favorite. Rockburn, and this improves his record two seconds. It was nip and tack between the same pair in the second and third heats. Gratz landing each by a short neek. Between heats Monroe Sallsbury came down the stretch behind Flying Jib and ranning mate, and sent the pacer a mile in 2:0044, so as to get him limber for a trial against time to-morrow. Alix, Fantasy, and Directly were paraded to halter and introduced as champions that would also show their speed to-morrow. Besides these exhibitions there is a race for 2:12 trotters. 2 on him before the second heat. Phoebe Wilkes made a bold bid for the heat, but the gelding Summartes:

Fred Gerken's Bouble Team Wins the $5,000 Match at Fleetwood Park, The match race between the rival double teams of Fred Gerken and John B. Gibbs was trotted yesterday at Fleetwood Park in the presence of a large crowd. The contest was made for a stake of $2,500 a side, but the interested parties yesterday increased this amount by a side bet of $1,800, Mr. Gerken backing terested parties yesterday increased this amount by a side bet of $1,800, Mr. Gerken backing Stoneridge and Little Sport at $1,000 against $800, laid by J. R. Keim on Cephas and Jesse. The Gerken team have been hot favorites in the betting ever since the match was made, although Cephus has a record of 2:144, and Jesse a mark of 2:21 in single harness, while the best record of Stoneridge is 2:214, and that of his mate, Little Sport, is only 2:254, Mr. Gerken and his driver, Aaron Fowler, relied more on their team's good behavior than speed, while the syndicate that backed Cephas and Jesse depended solely upon their superior individual speed, the horses never hawing been driven together in double harness before the match was made.

Stoneridge and Little Sport drew the pole, and got away in the lead. They showed the way to the half-mile pole, Cephas and Jesse being between three and four lengths back. At that point Gibbs made a sharp drive for the front, and in a jiffy Jesse and Cephas were on even terms with the Gerken team. The clip, however, Jappeared too fast for Jesse, for Jibs made a bad break just as Gibbs got him into the dead, and the other team came along quite at ease, and won the heat in 2:30.

In the second heat Gibbs made a waiting race of it, laying back four or six lengths until he had passed the half. Then he called on his horses, and this time they trotted without a break, and, overhauling Stoneridge and Sport half way between the distance stand and the wire, they won a rousing heat in a red-hot finish by less than half a length. They trotted the last half, up the hill, in 1:11, as timed by half a dozen unofficial watches, and their brilliant rush through the homestretch made them look like sure winners of the race.

The odds were 3 to 2 on Cephas and Jesse before the third heat, but in this mile Jesse once more left his stride at the critical moment, just as Gibbs began his drive up the hill, and making another tumble at the head of the homestretch, he and his steady-going mate were beaten away another tumble at the head of the homestretch, he and his steady-going mate were beaten away off in 2:27.

Before the fourth heat Gibbs used cocaine on Jesse's ailing leg, in the hope that it would steady him. This time Gibbs changed his tactics, and instead of playing the waiting game he set out to keep pace with the speedy Stoneridge and Sport. Just beyond the half Jesse went into the air, and the other team opened a lead of six or eight lengths. As soon as the gray horse struck his gait again Gibbs made a do-ordie drive, and while they showed a great burst of speed, distance to the wire was not long enough to enable them to make up all the lost ground, and Stoneridge and Sport landed in front by two lengths or more. Stoneridge had taken one of his characteristic runs on the last turn, and some horsemen thought he ought to be set back for his handy break. The judges, Messrs. H. M. Whitchead, Alexander Newburger, and Capt. C. H. McDonald, deliberated for somettime before they announced their decision, but when made it was in favor of the pair that came in ahead, Summary:

NINE NEW WHEEL RECORDS Made on the Waltham Track by Porter,

WALTHAM, Mass., Nov. 2.-Nine bicycle rec-Five of them were world's marks and four class Five of them were world's marks and four class A marks. Arthur Porter took the world's third, two-thirds and three-quarters records and the class A quarter, half, and mile. Haggerty and Williams took two world's and a class A mark. The conditions were very favorable for record work and the time at which the attempts were made especially so. Porter first made a try at the class A flying half with pacers. He wanted to break his own mark of 0:54. He did it, and, incidentally, got a world's mark for the third and a class A for the quarter. His times were as follows: Quarter, 0:23-1-5; best previous, 0:23-5, made by himself at Waltham; third, 0:34-1-5; best previous, 0:35, made by Johnson at Waltham; half, 0:53; best previous, 0:54, made by himself at Waltham.

Harry Tyler then made his first unsuccessful attempt since one afternoon in July. He tried for the flying two-thirds. Forter then attacked the world's standing mile with pacers. He lost it by a fluke, but got the class A mile with ease. Incidentally he got the two-thirds and three-quarters world's paced standing start marks. His times were as follows: Quarter, 0:33; third, 0:42; half, 0:59-3-5; two-thirds, 1:18-2-5; best previous, 1:19-5, made by Tyler at Waltham; three-quarters, 1:28, 1-5; best previous, class A, 2:00, made by Porter at Waltham.

Haggerty and Williams then went out for some landem marks and got them. Their times A marks. Arthur Porter took the world's third, Waltham.

Haggerty and Williams then went out for some landem marks and got them. Their times were as follows: Quarter, 0:254-5; bast previous world's record, 0:261-5, made by themselves; third, 0:342-5, best previous world's record, 0:352-5, made by themselves; half, 0:331-5; best previous class A, 0:544-5, made by themselves. AT AUCTION BY CARLL BURR. Her Full Brother, Vassar, the Pacer, 2:67 Sells for $2,200 Mr. Shutts of Parkville Buys Their Dam for 89,000-Amhasender, the Well-known Sire, is Knocked Down to United States Senator

McMillan-A Big Crowd Sees the Kalamazoo Farm's Stock Sold at Pair Prices, A choice offering of trotting stock was that of the Kalamazoo Farm, which was sold by Tatter-salis' yesterday at the Madison Square Garden. It was a closing out saie, and comprised some royally bred horses and their produce. The event was rendered necessary in winding up the affairs of the late United States Senator F. B. Stockbridge of Michigan, who was associated in the busin a with S. A. Browne.

There was a large attendance, and bidding was snappy on the most desirable horses, among whom were some well-known performers, with records that stamped them of more than ordinary merit.

Helle Vara, 2:08%, was the gem of the lot, and was bought by Caril Burr for $4,100. Next in order was Vassar, a full brother to Belle Vara, with a pacing record of 2:07. He went to C. L. Hood of Braintree, Mass., for $2,200. Nell, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Estill Erie, and the dam of Belle Vara, Vassar and other high-class performers, was knocked down to J. H. Schults of Parkville for $2,000. He also secured Low-land Girl, 2:19%, for whom he paid $1,100, The latter is the dam of Dancourt, 2:16%, and has produced at least half a dozen with a rec-ord of 2:28 or better. Dancourt brought $2,100, going to W. H. Gifford. Suisan, 2:18% by Electioneer, was bought by J. W. Daly for $1,800. Of the sires, Ambassador, 2:21% brought the top price, He was bought for $3,000 by Hon. James McMillan, United States Senator for Michigan. Warlock, 2:33%, was sold for $1,500 to W. P. Draper of Madi-son, N. J. The sale was a most successful one, and the prices, while not being so high as that of the Palo Aito stock sold on the previous day, were better than the owners' most sanguine ex-pectations. of Parkville for $2,000. He also secured Low-were better than the owners most sangulas expectations.

The stock of C. E. Lyle was sold last night and brought fair prices, considering the quality of the consignment. Some high-class horses will be offered to-day, when the Dramland Stock Farm's stock and that of Matthew Riley will be offered. Among Mr. Riley's lot is Ritty Bayard, 2:1234, and other fast ones.
